P.C.

1. In this civil application, the appellants have prayed that the impugned order dated 27th April, 2006 be stayed. By the impugned order, the learned Single Judge has directed the appellants to pay backwages to the petitioner. Without prejudice the rights and contentions of the parties, the learned counsel for the parties have stated that no reasons are necessary for the present order. In the circumstances of the case, in our opinion, the following order should meet the ends of justice:

i) The appellants shall deposit 50% of the backwages in this Court within four weeks from today. On such deposit being made, respondent 1 will be at liberty to withdraw 25% of the said amount without security. The remaining amount can be withdrawn by him after furnishing security to the satisfaction of the Registrar General of this Court.

ii) Needless to say that the Management will be at liberty to make an application to the State Government for reimbursement of the said amount.

3. Civil application is disposed of.
